

INTERVENTION AND ENRICHMENT

Apple Adverbs

Grades 2 to 3

Students color apples to sort adverbs of time, adverbs of manner, and words that are not adverbs.

Purpose

Students practice telling adverbs that indicate time from adverbs that express manner, and both from words that are not adverbs.

Coloring each apple gives every student a clear way to show the sort before using these words in writing.

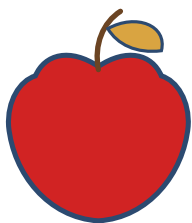

Teachers can use the finished page for a short class talk about how adverbs of time and manner make a sentence more exact.

TEKS 11(D)(v), Grade 3 (3.11D(v)): edit drafts using standard English conventions, including: adverbs that convey time and adverbs that convey manner

Materials

- Apple Adverbs student page, one copy per student
- Red crayon or colored pencil
- Green crayon or colored pencil
- Yellow crayon, colored pencil, or highlighter

How to Play / Steps

1. Give each student the Apple Adverbs page and red, green, and yellow coloring tools.
2. Read the directions at the top of the student page together.
3. Students color each apple that holds an adverb of time in red.
4. Students color each apple that holds an adverb of manner in green.
5. Students highlight each apple whose word is not an adverb in yellow.
6. Partners compare two apples and tell the color they used.
7. Review the key together. Students then say one sentence that uses a time adverb and one sentence that uses a manner adverb.

Teacher tips

 Time: red

 Manner: green

 Not an adverb: yellow

Tips

- Students color the whole apple so the sort is easy to check at a glance.
- The words last week stay together in one apple. That pair is one adverb of time.
- Loud and happy are not adverbs. Loudly and happily are adverbs of manner.
- Always and when tell when something happens, so students color those apples red.

Student page, in order

now	quickly	apple	early	bravely
loudly	last week	yesterday	running	tomorrow
today	when	happily	carefully	soon
gently	later	happy	slowly	excitedly
sadly	tonight	always	loud	softly

Apple Adverbs

Color the adverbs that indicate time in red, the adverbs that express manner in green, and highlight words that are not adverbs in yellow.
